An Introduction to:

Southeastern Christian Education Corp. (SCEC)

WHAT/WHO IS SCEC AND WHAT DO THEY DO?

Southeastern Christian Education Corporation (SCEC), successor to Southeastern Christian College, is a private, non-profit corporation whose purpose is to support Christian education by providing funds for scholarships to qualified institutions where students wish to attend. The scholarships awarded are based on rationale for spiritual and educational enrichment and financial need. Priority is given to post secondary level of education. The ultimate goal is to provide Christian Service.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO KNOW MORE OR BECOME INVOLVED?

In order to accomplish this goal, SCEC seeks to work with Christian congregations, Christian schools & other Christian organizations that share a common interest in promoting Christian Education. In doing so, SCEC shall participate with these to determine if we share mutual doctrinal views and desires toward Christian Education and are:

"eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace." Ephesians 4:3 (ESV)

The Business of the SCEC Corporation is conducted by corporate members from interested Christian congregations and organizations at an annual meeting usually in July. Other matters of business is conducted by a Board of Directors chosen from corporate members at semi-annual meetings in March and July each year.
